MOB ENTERS ALBEMARLE JAIL

BEING REFUSED ENTRANCE THEY DIG A HOLE IN THE WALL.

The Mob Was After John Notts, a Negro Charged With Poisoning the Love Family—When the Negro Got Out He Slipped Away—Was It Intentional or Was He Lynched?

Special to Charlotte Observer.

Albemarle, Nov. 15.—Was or was there not a lynching in Stanly county this morning? is the question that many of our citizens are debating today. About 2 o'clock this morning Sheriff McCain was aroused from his slumbers by a man on the outside who said he had a prisoner to deliver. The sheriff raised a window and told him to hand in the papers. He was confronted by a mob of some 25 persons, all disguised, who demanded the keys to the jail. Upon being refused they went around to the west side and proceeded to tear a hole in the wall that would admit them.

They then went up stairs to the steel cage, where the negro, John Notts, accused of poisoning Dr. S. J. Love, some two months ago, was confined, and soon wrenched the door open. The negro was pulled out and carried down stairs and thrust through the hole in the side of the wall. As soon as he touched the ground he ran for his life and has not been seen since. A great number of shots were fired, but as the darkness enveloped the earth it could not be told whether he was hit or not.

Here the mystery deepens and no one is able to say whether he escaped or not. Two theories are advanced. One is that the negro was taken off and lynched and another one that he was released to destroy the evidence which he would give at court and which might implicate other persons in the poisoning. Nothing has been heard today from the negro or the mob and the whole thing is enveloped in deep mystery. It is said there were 200 men in the crowd, but not over 25 were at the jail.

Notts would have been tried at the December term of court. The woman who is also accused of being implicated in the case was not molested other than that one of the men hit the door of the cell where she was confined and told her that he would not trouble her. None of the mob was recognized by the jailer or his family.

The damage to the building is between two and three hundred dollars. The combination lock to the steel cell was shattered. Sheriff McCain resides in the jail with his family and his wife was prostrated by the midnight attack. She had a violent chill immediately afterward and the sheriff had to remain with her the remainder of the night.

FUN ON THE TURF.

Local Animals Furnish Big Amusement and Win Great Applause.

About a hundred persons, many of them ladies, went to the race track at the fair ground yesterday to witness the speed of some local celebrities.

Ecce Boy, owned by Mr. Carl Wheeler; Cherokee, owned by Mr. Garland Daniel; and Eunice Walker, owned by Mr. George Vanstory, did a fine jaunt. The prize was for the best out of five half mile heats. Ecce Boy won. His time was 120, 122½ and 125. Eunice Walker came out second.

Two thoroughbreds, unnamed and pedigree unwritten, owned by Rank Thompson and Dave Stinson, put up a three-eights running race. The former's horse won in 48 seconds.

"Charlie" at Newbern.

As one opens the Newbern Journal of yesterday he encounters on the first page a large two column picture of "Charlie, the horn footed horse." This is the horse lately bought by Dr. J. W. Griffith from a countryman in this county and put on exhibition at the fair here. "Charlie" is some potatoes down there. Under his beautiful picture is this:

"Fifteen years old, the second time ever out of his stable, has horns on fore feet 29 inches long. Raised in Guilford County, North Carolina, near Greensboro. Taken from his stable seven weeks ago for the first time in twelve years. A blooded horse with beautiful silken mane and tail. A wonder to see. Don't fail to see Charlie. Costs only 10 cents, for adults; 5 cents for children."

DECREE FAVORABLY RECEIVED.

THOUGHT IN SHANGHAI THAT IT PAVES THE WAY TO PEACE TALK.

Tuan's Punishment is Considered Severe as His Son and Heir Apparent Cannot Become Emperor—Conservative People Think the Way is Now Open For Peace Negotiations.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Shanghai, Nov. 16.—The full text of the decree issued yesterday for the degradation and punishment of Princes Tuan and Chwang, Duke Lan, Gov. and Yu Hslen, and Chao Chu Chiao are confirmed. Prince Tuan's punishment is regarded as severe, because it means that his son and heir apparent can never become Emperor of China The punishment of Yu Hslen is considered entirely inadequate. The feeling here is that he should be beheaded. No mention is made in the edict of Gen. Fu Hsiang, probably because of his strong military power and prestige in Northern China. It is thought here that this edict is a step in the right direction and paves the way to the opening of peace negotiations Conservative people think it should be viewed in that light and be made the basis for the further punishment of persons responsible for the Boxer outrages.

NO MEETING TONIGHT.

The Gentlemen Engineering the Contemplated Street Railway Plans Agree to Postpone Their Application Till Next Friday Night.

Yesterday The Telegram published the statement that the Aldermen would meet tonight to consider propositions from parties seeking a franchise to construct a street railway. The mayor, at the solicitation of one of the parties has called the meeting off, and the matter will be brought up at the regular meeting next Friday night.

This was made necessary by the failure to deliver a telegram in time, and the consequental non-arrival of an interested party. There are, we are reliably informed, two well developed, definite and certain plans to construct a road. The race is between these two to see which will first obtain the franchise.

ASSAULT MADE ON EMPEROR

WOMAN THREW AN AXE AT HIM AS HE PASSED IN OPEN CARRIAGE.

The Emperor Was on the Way to the Cuirassier Barracks and the Rapidity of the Carriage Saved Him from Being Wounded—The Woman Was Immediately Arrested.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Breslau, Noy, 16.—Emperor William was the object of an attempted outrage this morning which, however, failed. As he was driving in an open carriage to the cuirarssier barracks, accompanied by the hereditary prince of Saxe Heinington, a woman in the crowd hurled an axe at the carriage. The rapidity with which the vehicle was passing saved the occupants, and the axe fell just behind the carriage. The woman was immediately arrested.

The one hundred thousand dollar damage suit of Rev. T. J. Gattis against Dr. J. C. Kilgo, Mr. B. N. Duke, of Durham, and Mr. W. R. Odell, of Concord, will be called in Oxford next Wednesday. The case is one that has been in the courts for about 18 months and a verdict in the case will be watched for with more than usual interest by the people of North Carolina. Every inch of ground will be hotly contested from start to finish. In the case will appear one of the most brilliant arrays of counsel that probably ever appeared in a case in the State.

A short session, the first one, of the newly elected Constitutional Convention of Cuba was held yesterday.

Secretary Long yesterday announced the conclusion of the long controversy over the price of armor plate for naval vessels, and an agreement with the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies for Krupp armor at $420 per ton, with the possible addition of royalty, less fees, making the maximum price $455.-52 a ton. The amount of armor involved is the largest ever placed at a time by the government, and is said to equal all the armor purchased by this government, up to 1896. It covers the armor for 17 ships now in various stages of construction, including eight battleships, six armored cruisers and three protected cruisers.

GOVERNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF PARTY.

The Washington Post is an independent paper. It thinks what it will and says what it pleases. We find it, however, always attempting to be fair, and we regard this as the sine qua non of a newspaper. We make this preface to what we are copying from The Post because it shows that what it says is not an expression of bias. To quote:

But it seems to us that people who vote against the Republican party, which enriches and protects them, have little claim upon that party's recognition. Men cannot afford to sacrifice their real interests to an unprofitable sentiment. They ought to be one thing or the other. If Republican policies promote their material interests and Democratic policies menace them, they owe to themselves to assume a logical attitude in party controversy. They cannot with propriety vote against the Republican ticket and then ask a Republican administration to hasten to their rescue.

"A Republican administration" is, during its existence, the government of our common country. Thus The Post unconsciously, perhaps, expresses the all too prevalent idea that government should be administered in this country for the benefit of the adherents of the party in power. The man who votes against the Republican party has just as much right to call upon the government to extend to him the protection of the government as has the most loyal Republican of them all. Otherwise one's citizenship would, instead of being a matter of pride and security, be of no consequence to him, but he should be careful about selecting his party membership, lest he get on the wrong side and become an outcast. To make the Post's contention reductio ad absurdum: Suppose a man who has consistently fought the Republican party all his life finds himself in a dangerous position in a foreign country, he is shut off from asking protection at the hands of Mr. McKinley's administration.

The Post's train of thought was opened by the following, taken from the same editorial as the first extract:

We hear a Macedonian cry from the Southern cotton mill owners. They fear that Russia will obtain possession of Manchuria and at once impose a heavy duty upon American goods—to such an extent, in fact, as to crush their trade with China. This outcry is swelled by the lamentations of eighteen mill owners in North Carolina, twenty-one in South Carolina, four in Alabama, and others elsewhere. The feeling seems to be that a further interference in Chinese affairs will destroy the trade and paralyze one of the most promising of Southern industries. The millers are kind enough to approve the "open door" policy and to compliment the administration on its course in that respect. They give their most effusive commendation of the existing arrangement and proclaim the hope that nothing will be done to interfere with or obstruct their present prosperity.

There is no reason to believe that the Southern cotton millers voted against the open door policy. Perhaps they had every reason to believe that the ticket they voted stood for the open door. The open door has not been an issue in any campaign, neither has any policy which necessarily leads up to it. Perhaps, again, there were other things that the millers thought of more concern to them than even the open door, granted that they voted against it, which The Post assumes. asking that such advantage as might be derived from it might be extended to them?

A SHREWD QUARRY LEADS THE CHASE.

The prettiest municipal fight of this end of the century is now brewing in the great city of New York. Our readers who are interested in it and want to keep the run of it, had better be on the look out now, for so early as this the plans of the chase are being laid. The quarry, the Tammany tiger, lies yet unmolested in his lair, or walks forth for his prey as suits his fancy. He has yet given no thought of being flushed, but he will by and by, and then, when they have hedged him about as much as possible and brought all the enemies that can be brought against him, the fight will be to the finish. And strong the arm that fights, and sure the aim that fires, else the hunters will retreat in confusion again as they have done so oft before.

It appears that the Citizen's Union is out for co-operation if it can be had with some party desiring the same ends as its own. For its manifesto says, "The Union appreciates the importance of having one ticket in the field upon which all may unite who demand th separation of municipal from State and national politics, and a civic administration without spoils, favoritism or political tyranny. With this end in view it will spare no efforts to secure the active co operation of all organizations, societies and individuals qualified to render effective service." The Union went it alone three years ago, as did several other organizations, and Tammany carried the whole rake-off. So far as we know, there is no other than the Republican party that the Union can fuse with, and there are signs that that instituiion is reaching out its its skinny fingers strokingly to the Union. It's going to be a pretty tussle anyway.

DUPLICITY ADMITTED.

It was charged during the campaign that the Republican opposition to trusts was only feigned, that Republican sympathies were really on that side, and that the pretence was kept up in order to berak the Democratic position on the same subject. In the New York Sun of Tuesday we have this admission frankly made. It says:

Ever since the last election the leaders of the Republican party have made all sorts of efforts to placate and allay what they feared was the Bryanism latent in the country by various anti-trust laws and other legislative measures which would have the appearance of meeting half way that hostility to corporate and business enterprise which it was feared Mr. Bryan had evoked.

Now this is changed. There is little fear that there will be more anti-trust laws at the coming session of Congress or at the one next after it, and it is probable, so far as our own Legislature is concerned, that not only will no such laws be passed or even introduced, but that some hasty measures of the sort that have found their way to the statute books will be amended, if not repealed.

The Sun congratulates the country that it is now certain that no more laws will be passed that will menace what it calls "business." We said yesterday that the Republicans would feel justified in giving the trusts free reign, and the Sun, a Republican organ, thus gloates over the fact that they will have the opportunity to do so. The joy of the trusts will be unconfined for a season. Meanwhile some quiet students will be collecting facts and making deductions and after a while will tell us something about trusts and point out their real place in economics; will discover how much of their workings is natural law and how much is artificial, and then we can begin to formulate intelligent platforms on the subject.

The new gunboat Stockton, which was blown ashore Tuesday night on Horn Point, while on her way to Annapolis, Md., was floated yesterday. She was uninjured. Her speed trial is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

The bridal couple left on the evening train for the home of the groom, carrying with them the well wishes of their many friends and acquaintances.

Mr. R. E. Donick, proprietor of the South Hill Furniture Co. at South Hill, Va., spent today here buying furniture in car load lots. Mr. Daniels expressed himself as being well pleased with his purchases and was surprised to find High Point such a large furniture market. He was accompanied by his wife.

Mr. H. E. Radcliffe, of Lexington, was here today on business.

Mr. John J. Gilbert, a citizen of Elkin, was a visitor today.

Messrs. E. A. Cranford and J. A. Turrentine were among the business men in town today.

A telegram was received here yesterday from parties in Liberty notifying Deputy Parrish to look out for a man by the name of Edwards who is accused of poisoning cattle at that place. He was out on bond for his appearance at trial, and it is supposed that it was his bondsmen who asked for his arrest. In a few hours after receipt of the telegram Deputy Parrish had captured the man but could not and did not hold him, as the request did not come from the proper authority, and consequently had not the strong arm of law behind it. However, the officer there understood that the fugitive from justice would be held in custody, and felt somewhat disappointed on his arrival here today to find that his man had been turned loose.

Edwards is said to be a tough character. Mr. Miller, the officer from Liberty, is still here, hoping to run across Edwards.

The friends of Mr. J. W. Havre will be glad to know that he is expected here the latter part of this month, after an absence of eleven months in North and South America.

Dr. Martin Left His Estate to Education.

Raleigh Post.

The will of the late Dr. T. D. Martin was probated yesterday.

The bulk of the estate, which is valued at $14,000, is given to the cause of education. St. Mary's, the Episcopal school for young women in this city, receives $3,000, and the University of North Carolina will receive the handsome sum of $7,000. The estate is held in trust during the life of Mrs. Martin, who receives a gift of $1,000 outright and the income of the estate. About $3,500 is bequeathed to relatives and friends.

The gift of $3,000 to St. Mary's is for the endowment of a scholarship to be known as the Henrietta Perkins Scholarship, this being the maiden name of his wife. The will directs that the sum shall not be paid out of the estate until the present indebtedness of St. Mary's is raised.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The City Treasurer, on account of the unavoidable delay in the collection of the taxes which were due on the 1st day of October, 1900, finds himself at present short of funds, but by reason of the public spirit and accommodation of the Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company and the Underwriters of Greensboro, I am able to announce that the said companies will cash at their face value all interest bearing warrants issued since September 1st, 1900, by the city to school teachers, policemen and other city employees, when they are in the hands of the original holders and do not exceed $100 each, provided that this order does not hold good after $3,000 has been expended in cashing the said warrants.

Applications should be made at the bank counter of the Southern Loan add Trust Company.

CITY NEEDS ANOTHER ROAD.

THIS IS ONE OF THE OBJECTS THAT SHOULD SHARE OUR ATTENTION.

"M," Seeing The Telegram's Editorials Suggesting an Industrial and Business Revival, Points Out a Way in Which the City's Progress May be Greatly Helped—We are Right Between Two Other Great Lines of Railroads and Might Get One of Them to Come Here.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

The writer has read with considerable interest several editorials which have appeared recently in your paper regarding the matter of commercial and industrial improvement. These articles were both timely and pertinent and deserve the consideration of all who feel an interest in the growth and prosperity of our city.

In thinking along this line it occurred to the writer that there is a matter which is of vital importance to us, and in fact, it might be called the paramount issue, and yet it does not appear to be receiving much attention from our citizens at present. The matter referred to is that of securing additional railroad facilities. The Southern is the greatest railroad system in the South, it is doing a great work for the Southern States, for North Carolina and for Greensboro, and when we attempt to get another railroad here we do not mean to say that we have any special cause for complaint against the Southern, or that we are seeking to injure their business; we simply mean that Greensboro aspires to be a city some day, and that we cannot call to mind the name of a single city of importance that is restricted to the use of one railroad for the handling of its traffic. On one side of us we have the Norfolk & Western at a distance of about thirty miles; on the other we have the Seaboard Air Line at about the same distance. It would be of great benefit to Greensboro's commercial interest to have either of these systems here, and still more so to have both. Even if there were no reduction of freight charges, and it is likely that there would be reductions, the new territory which would be opened up would be of immense value to our wholesale merchants, to our retail merchants, our hotels, our cotton factories, our woodworking factories, our banks, our tobacco dealers, and through these to all the various interests which compose the busine s life of Greensboro. Now this is a matter which should interest not only our large manufacturers and merchants, but every resident of the city, no matter how humble his profession or business may be, should feel a keen interest in the matter and be willing to do all in his power to aid in securing for Greensboro those transportation facilities which would contribute so much towards placing it in the first rank of Southern cities. The writer has no special plan to offer but writes this with the hope that our people may begin to consider this important matter and begin to take whatever steps may be necessary to bring it about.

THE PRESIDENT'S WORKSHOP.

The Whole East End of the Second Floor of the White House Used for Offices.

The whole east end of the white house on the second floor is given up to public purposes—the offices of the president, his secretaries and the executive clerks, the cabinet room and the telegraph room, writes Rene Bache, in the Ladies' Home Journal. For convenience the room last named adjoins President McKinley's own office, and the electric apparatus which it contains places him in communication by telegraph with all parts of the world, and by telephone with all points reached by the long-distance system. A special kind of telephone, which has no 'central,' enables him to converse privately with the heads of the departments. The cabinet room is about one-third as big as it should be, and the library next to it contains an inferior collection of books, consisting mainly of out-of-date editions of historical and classical works. A glass door across the main corridor, which runs lengthwise through the white house, shuts off the offices described from the sleeping quarters of the family.

Mail in Central Africa.

The postmaster general of the British central African protectorate gives one or two interesting items of news in his latest report. The mails are still conveyed for the most part upon the heads and backs of native postmen. The men are recruited chiefly from the Yao and Atonga tribes and wear a uniform. Fully 300 bags of mail are made up each month at the different post offices in the protectorate for conveyance by these men, the total distance traveled being close upon 10,000 miles per month, the cost of transit being less than a half penny per mile per bag.

COERCED A CORPORATION.

New Jersey Woman Compelled a Railway to Give Her a Special Train.

Miss Rose Heritage, of Gloucester City, N. J., is probably the only woman in the country who has ever dictated to a big railway corporation and, perhaps, the only woman who has ever had the distinction of riding on a special train all her own. A few days ago Miss Heritage went to visit Mrs. William Sayer, of Clayton. She took an evening train on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad for her home. The train had been delayed by a slight accident and was over an hour late. After getting aboard the conductor informed her that she would have to change cars at Glassboro, as his train did not stop at Gloucester, and she could take the next train in from there.

Miss Heritage protested, but finally yielded, and, after waiting till nearly ten o'clock, she inquired of the operator at the station when the next train would arrive. She was told that the train had left before she stopped, owing to the lateness of her train. She insisted that he telegraph for an express to stop for her, but this was refused, the officials saying she could go to a hotel at the company's expense and leave for home in the morning.

Miss Heritage's mother was ill at home and she was anxious to move, so she refused, saying the company was responsible for her being put off and they would have to take her to Gloucester. After some further controversy Miss Heritage was told to wait a few minutes, and in a short time an engine and car pulled up. She got aboard and in 13 minutes she was landed in Gloucester and in a few minutes was at her mother's bedside.

ORIGIN OF WOMAN.

Hindoo Legend Which Pays a Rare Compliment to the Feminine Sex.

In oriental countries women are generally regarded as the inferiors of men, yet, according to a Hindoo legend, this is the proper origin of the sex: Twashtri, the god Vulcan of the Hindoo mythology, created the world. But on his commencing to create woman he discovered that with man he had exhausted all his creative materials, and that not one solid element had been left. This, of course, greatly perplexed Twashtri, and caused him to fall in profound meditation. When he arose from it he proceeded as follows: He took the roundness of the moon, the undulating curves of the serpent, the graceful twist of the creeping plant, the light shivering of the grass blade and the slenderness of the willow, the velvety softness of the flowers, the lightness of the feather, the gentle gaze of the doe, the frolicsomeness of the dancing sunbeam, the tears of the cloud, the inconstancy of the wind, the timidness of the hare and the vanity of the peacock, the hardness of the diamond, the sweetness of honey, the cruelty of the tiger, the heat of the fire and the chill of the snow, the cackling of the parrot and the cooing of the turtledove. All these he mixed together and formed woman. Then he presented her to the man.

Nell—"I do so love to hear Mr. Knowitall talk. Isn't he delightful?" Belle—"Yes; and so unintelligible. His conversation is just like magazine poetry.

Miss Gotrox—"Clarence, papa objects to you because you have to work for a living." Clarence—"Well, I won't after we are married."

MY SISTER'S BABY

My baby is full of abounding life and joy; my sister's boy is a puny thing.

The difference is: my baby is healthy. He takes his fill and sleeps; and he grows. My sister's boy gets fully as hungry, he cries with hunger; then cries, I think it must be, from weakness; his food is a burden to him.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil will set that poor little boy in the way of being as good as his cousin.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

We don't hear so much about the open door as we did. "Shut the Door" signs, however, have made their appearance.

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement. "We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

HOW BOXERS ARE MADE.

Peculiar Process by Which the Novice Is Supposed to Be Made Invulnerable.

A correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury tells how Boxers are made—that is, the mummery and the antics the novice has to go through before he is pronounced invulnerable by the adepts who instruct him. The correspondent, according to an eastern exchange, writes:

"The first posture is to face the southeast, burn incense and make prostrations. Each one then repeats an incantation and loudly calls for the highest grade of spiritual beings, then the second grade, and finally the third grade; the person then falls upon the ground and seems to pass into a swoon.

"After remaining in this apparently unconscious state for a time the teacher or leader strikes the person on the top of his head, arouses him and puts a long sword into his hand. Then he springs to his feet and brandishes the sword most violently until his strength seems to be quite exhausted. The leader again strikes him on the head and puts him asleep for a time, during which the spirit is supposed to either again take possession or him or at least give him new power, and he again continues to practice with the sword. This continued for many days is supposed to make the man a skilled Boxer, whose body cannot be injured by the guns or swords of foreigners."

A Brilliant Ceremony by Which the Big Millionaire's Daughter Becomes Mrs. Satterlee—The Magnificent Gifts.

New York, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, was married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, in St. George's church, to Herbert Livingston Satterlee, a lawyer of this city. The invitations for the ceremony numbered 2,500, much beyond the seating capacity of the church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Rainsford, rector of St. George's. The service was fully choral. The bride, who was accompanied by her father, wore a superb wedding gown of white peau de suoi, almost entirely covered with exquisite Point d'Alencon. The veil was of tulle, and the bouquet was of white orchids, lillies of the valley and white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Annie Tracy Morgan, the bride's sister; Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Ursula Morgan and Miss Frances Street Happin, her cousins; Miss Marion Satterlee, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss May Sturgess.

The floral decoratious in the church were of an unusually elaborate character. The Morgan residence, where the reception was held, was also handsomely decorated with a profusion of roses, chrysanthemums and palms. The couple received in the drawing room, standing in front of a mass of flowers. A buffet luncheon was served under a large temporary structure erected in the yard adjoining the house. The bride received from her father a superb tiara and a collar of diamonds and a brooch of Marquise diamonds, set in treface design, and, it is said, Mr. Morgan has set aside for her bonds of great value.

CROKER TO TAKE A HAND.

Announces His Intention to Help Purify the City—Will go to Europe for His Health.

New York, Nov. 15 —The executive committee of Tammany Hall held a meeting tonight, at which Richard Croker bade all the leaders good-bye and took a hand in starting a movement to rid the city of vice. In a little speech the Tammany leader said he was going to Europe for health, not pleasure, and introduced Isidor Alliance, as a man who was acquainted with the condition of things on the East Side, saying: "I hope you will give attentive hearing to his statement of the conditions of vice that exist there and that after you have heard what he has to say, you will use your every effort to correct those evils as far as lies in your power."

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mre ohn Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the ubject, is narrated by him as follows; 'I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one snould fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

RHEUMATISM— CATARRH — DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. 8092—Boy's Knickerbockers and Knee Trousers.
2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

BOYS' KNEE TROUSERS AND KNICKERBOCKERS, NO. 8092.

Navy blue cheviot made the natty knee trousers here represented and the knickerbockers were developed in brown tweed. Both styles are included in the one pattern.

No. 1. The trousers are shaped with the usual inside and outside seams, small darts at the top conforming the back to the figure. A fly closing is used and the pattern is provided with an inside band through which button holes are worked to fasten the trousers to the buttons on the waist.

No. 2. The knickerbockers are gathered at the lower edge and adjusted with an elastic which is run through the hem and drawn tight around the knee. They are closed with a fly, provided with a band similar to the one used on the trousers, and fitted with small darts at the back. Suspender buttons can be used in place of the band. Pockets are inserted at the top of side seams.

Trousers in either style can be made up from all kinds of suiting—diagonal weed, cheviot, serge or tweed—in plain, mixed striped or checked varieties, and worn with a coat to match or correspond.

To make the trousers for a boy of eight years will require five-eighths yards of fifty-four inch material for No. 1 and three-fourths yard of fifty-two-inch material for No. 2 design. The pattern, No. 8092 is cut in sizes for boys, six, eight, ten and twelve years.

THE TELEGRAM will receive and forward orders for all patterns described in this column. The price is only ten cents for each pattern to cover cost of mailing and handling. In ordering fill blank below and send to The Telegram office:

Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Howard Gardner.

"I may be a failure," remarked the flying machine, "and yet I can truthfully say that there are no flies on me."

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best liver pills ever made. Easy to take and never gripe. Howard Gardner.

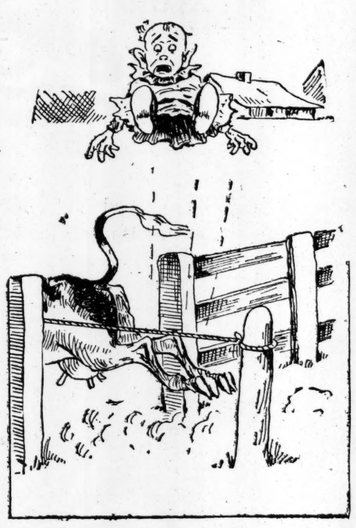
THE BABY, THE COW AND THE GATE. A TRAGEDY IN THREE ACTS.

ONE.

TWO.



THREE.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

EDITOR'S AWFUL PLIGHT.

F. M. Higgins, editor Seneca, (Ills.,) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. It's the surest Pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac.
Grissom & Fordham.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Some people apparently talk so that they won't have to listen to other people.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeits commit fraud. Honest men will not deceive you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing piles, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. Howard Gardner

A THOUSAND TONGUES.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. Kings' New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

GET INTO TANTRUMS.

That Is What the Child Wives of India Do When They Are Ugly.

"Wife beating, which seems such a horrible and repulsive thing to occidental minds, if looked at from the Hindoo standpoint becomes not only allowable, but actually commendable," says a missionary recently returned from India. "The marriages are made so young that the wives are mere children. If the mother-in-law is alive to look after her daughter, well and good, but if not, the husband is apt to say: 'Who is to govern my wife, if not I?' A native who has been converted was told that, as a Christian, he could no longer whip his wife. He replied in some surprise that there was nothing else to be done when his wife got in one of her 'tantrums.' The missionary promised to try to calm her if trouble should again arise, and was thanked again and again for the generous offer. Soon the Hindoo came to bring word of another 'tantrum,' and the missionary immediately went to the family abode. At the door he was met by a volley of chairs, pots, pans, etc., while within could be heard the voice of the child wife raised in wrath. He hesitated, and when pressed by his pupil to 'go in and calm her,' was obliged to acknowledge his inefficiency."

Progress in Spain.

Spain is undeniably progressing. The fine old Iberian temper is unbroken. No longer drained of her young men to maintain a colonial empire, and free from the annual expense of $100,000,000 which it was costing to retain the colonies, Spain is prospering. The government asks for a loan of $200,000,000, and the Spanish people subscribe $600,000,000. New factories are being built, even electric cable works; electric traction is being introduced in the Spanish cities, and at Madrid such is the increased activity in business and travel two fine new hotels are to be built at once. Every improvement known to modern hotels will be introduced. To-day Spain, once more thriving, is buying heavily of machinery and sending large orders to the United States.—Financial Herald, City of Mexico.
